PERSONAL STATEMENT

Hello, my name is Adam Lucas and I'm a 23 year old Graphic Designer from Raleigh North Carolina. I love everything that has to do with the process & development of Graphic design, Packaging, Print design and like most designers, I have a special place of the art of typography.

I have 3 years of experience working as a freelance designer around the Raleigh area and as of August, Boone North Carolina. Design has always been a passion of mine, but more importantly, discovering & analyzing new concepts has helped develop my own distinctive style within the design world.

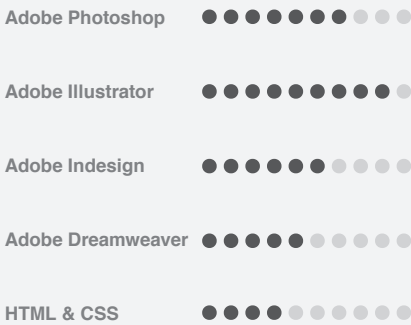

Why don't we work together? Go futher down to see why I am the man you need to hire!
